From private pools to butler service and to incredible amenities and perks, keep reading to see some of the most luxurious hotels the world has to offer.

BURJ AL ARAB – DUBAI

OUTRAGEOUSLY EXTRAVAGANT

This iconic hotel is built to symbolize the sail of an Arabian dhow, the Burj Al Arab is the seventh tallest hotel in the world. Undoubtedly one of the most outrageously extravagant hotels in the world managed by Jumeirah Hotel Group.

Whilst the official rating of the hotel is 5-star (the highest hotel rating there is), it is generally referred to as a seven-star hotel or "the most luxurious hotel in the world" since opening its doors in 1999. And while the brand doesn't describe itself this way, it's easy to see why others do.

It features a pillow menu with nine types of pillows to choose from, a bath menu, 24-carat gold leaf walls and full-sized Hermès amenities in every suite. The Hermès toiletries will make you want to spend much more time in the bath than in one of the hotel's five pools. This stunning hotel offers world class service with right down a chauffeur who will drive you around in a Rolls Royce. Lastly, the hotel features nine on-site restaurants, so dining options never feel stale.

FOUR SEASONS RESORT MALDIVES AT LANDAA GIRAAVARU – MALDIVES

YOUR OWN PRIVATE ISLAND

There are two Four Seasons properties in the Maldives (the first is on Kuda Huraa Island in Mal Atoll) and both goes to great lengths to respect its stunning natural surroundings.

The Four Seasons Maldives at Voavah is the pinnacle of secluded extravagance. The combination of innovation, healthy lifestyles and environmental programs is all about Landaa Giraavaru. A rare collection of all the best to see and do was featured and delivered by a team that has no equal in the hospitality industry.

Nothing says pure luxury like having your private island and if the cost doesn't bother you, you will definitely not be disappointed by this resort. This extensive resort has an ayurvedic-focused spa, four fabulous restaurants, a revolutionary marine research center with a manta-on-call service, and 103 enormous villas perched on the beach or water bungalows who stands over the Indian Ocean.

The island includes a beach villa with seven luxury suites for up to 22 guests. No expense has been spared to make sure guests feel comfortable and relaxed. Guests have exclusive-access of Voavah Summer, the hotels' 62-foot private luxury yacht. Insider tip: to see life below that turquoise-colored water without messing up your Rossano Ferretti blow dry, hire the hotel's submarine.

THE PLAZA HOTEL – NEW YORK

AN ICON

Since its debut in early 1907, The Plaza has endured as an icon in New York hosting world leaders, VIPs, Broadway legends, and Hollywood royalty. However, the hotel is much more than simply an historic property.

Based in midtown Manhattan, the hotel is conveniently situated near New York City Center, Rockefeller Center, the Radio City Music Hall and Central Park.

The Plaza Hotel offers "One-Of-A-Kind Rooms & Suites," which go above and beyond to give guests a very unique — and luxurious — experience. If you take the Tower Room, for example, you will get a dramatic 23-foot exposed brick turret ceiling. Or the Fitzgerald Suite King, which was designed by Oscar-winning designer Catherine Martin as a tribute to the Jazz Age and F. Scott Fitzgerald.

And last but not least, the hotel offers many dining options, highlighted The Rose Club. This club is complete with plush lounge seating and an array of signature cocktails, this legendary space is luxury at its finest.

ONE&ONLY PALMILLA - MEXICO

TROPICAL PARADISE

On a rocky peninsula overlooking the grandeur of the Pacific Ocean, the One&Only Palmilla is the original Los Cabos luxury resort favored by Hollywood royalty and VIPs. Few places can compete with its combination of fine dining, spa-pampering and views of the seasonal parade of frolicking humpback whales.

Here you honestly feel like you've been transported to another world. The Mexican hacienda-style architecture, the old inhouse chapel, the beloved mariachi band and that soft ocean mist in the air that's ever present. The hotel feels more like a private home, and for the longest time, this is what it actually was. It was the home of Don Abelardo Rodriguez before becoming the region's first and finest resort. The original 15-room house was expanded, today counting 173 rooms, suites, casitas and luxury villas, all surrounded by swaying palms and immersed in tropical atmospheres.

LA RESERVE PARIS

À PARIS

La Réserve Paris Hôtel and Spa is closer to a lifestyle choice rather than it is a place to stay just for the night.

Named the No. 1 hotel in Europe by several renowned journals, La Réserve Paris is an elegant and luxurious hotel that mixes antique decor with a touch of modern flair. The property offers luxury amenities and perks in a cozy and warm setting, including two restaurants, a pool, spa, library, and even a hidden smoking room. The rooms include TVs hidden behind antique mirrors to maintain the elegant atmosphere, antique writing desks, and linens monogrammed with guests' initials as a personal detail.

True to its heritage, the property also includes a curated collection of over 1,500 wines in its well-appointed wine cellar.

EMIRATES PALACE ABU DHABI

LAVISH & ROYAL

Part of the well-known Mandarin Oriental hotel group, the Emirates Palace in Abu Dhabi is renowned for its lavish yet royal interiors and attentive service. Reportedly costing over $3 billion to build, the estate has more than 1,000 Swarovski crystal chandeliers.

There are 394 guest rooms and suites as well as 40 conference and meeting rooms. A lot of royals already spend the night here. The three-bedroom Palace Suite comes with its own dining room and large private terrace. Nestled in a beautiful natural bay, the Emirates Palaces has a white sand beach and private marina. You can also stroll in 100 hectares of pristine gardens.

RAFFLES SINGAPORE

THE GRANDE DAME

This hotel is the original grande dame of Singapore, and where the Singapore Sling was invented in the now legendary Long Bar. The colonial architecture of the Raffles Singapore, and its heritage, remain the same. Everything else about it has been spruced up to withstand another 132 years of the world's elite gracing its halls, gardens, and splendidly high-ceilinged spaces.

Since opening in 1887, Raffles Singapore has been a magnet for A-listers. Elizabeth Taylor stayed here, as did Charlie Chaplin, Ava Gardner and many more.

The iconic Singapore Sling cocktail was created by bartender Ngiam Tong Boon in 1915 in Raffles Hotel. This gin-based cocktail is still regarded as the national drink of Singapore. Part of the Raffles Hotels and Resorts group, this is an all-suite Singapore hotel. Restaurants include Michelin-starred Alain Ducasse and Anne-Sophie Pic.

VILLA LARIO – LAKE COMO

YOUR OWN PRIVATE ISLAND

Nestled below a sleepy village on the shore of Lake Como, Villa Lario combines the romantic drama of the deepest lake in Italy with the charm of the Dolce Vita of its shores dotted with stunning modern yet traditional villas and wonderful gardens.

Villa Lario is an exclusive all-suite property in a private and secluded location in Lario, perched on a cliffside overlooking the Lake Como. Monochromatic colors combined with vivid white tones give the sophisticated interiors a clean look.

The suites feel like home away from home with their comfortable furniture and modern statements.

This piece of land was purchased 130 years ago by the Lombardi family and was no more than a common Lake Como' boat cave just to house their extensive collection. 10 years ago, the current owners fell in love with this then abandoned villa, and after the purchase, work on a hotel began. The very passionate conservative renovation lasted for 8 years. All in total harmony with the history and the surrounding nature.

BILL & COO – MYKONOS

SIMPLY BREATHTAKING

As a jet-setter's romantic choice destination for absolute luxury and privacy, Bill & Coo Hotel Mykonos belongs to one of the top luxury hotels on the poshest of Greek islands featuring a breathtaking infinity pool, one of Greece's award-winning restaurants and bespoke obliging service.

Split between two adorable locations on the island, Bill & Coo Hotel Mykonos offers sea-facing serenity and beautiful mod-Mykonian style in spades.

The hotel has long been the designer destination of choice for jet-set romantics – your only real decision is which of its two locations to bed down in. The original part of the hotel is now known as the Bill & Coo Suites and Lounge, which is within walking distance of Mykonos Old Town and 150m from the nearest beach. This is the place for elegant poolside lounging, sunset mojitos and midnight seduction.

The adults-only Coast Suites, on the other hand, hug the beach at Agios Ioannis, 3.5km from the Old Town. In these villas (3 in total), you'll have direct access to the sun-kissed sand and service to straight to your lounge. And oh yes, Diptyque amenities it is! Inspired? Read more of our stay.

CARLTON CANNES – FRANCE

LUXURY IN EVERY DETAIL

This grand old lady in Cannes has seen it all. The whole hotel breaths luxury to every detail. The newly renovated Carlton Cannes is now home to the largest infinity pool in the Riviera. It's no surprise that the hotel, as the go-to spot for the jet set during the Cannes Film Festival, has been seen on the silver screen throughout the years. The hotel even has a cameo in the 2019 Rocketman biopic. Now, the hotel is set to enter a new chapter as it unveils a complete renovation.

This new iteration of the hotel will see complete updates to its 332 rooms (starting at roughly $1,285 per night) along with 37 brand-new residences (for long-stays) and a courtyard featuring the (largest) infinity pool in Cannes, lined with chic cabanas and sunbathing decks. The private beach deck (called the Pontoon) is a real added value (and venue). There's also a pétanque court that comes with its own rosé menu. Could it be more French?
